

481—36.7(196) Eggs used in food preparation. Restaurants, institutional consumers, and food manufacturers shall receive and use only clean, sound shell eggs of Grade B quality or better. They may buy dried, frozen, or liquid eggs only if such products are prepared and pasteurized in a plant under USDA continuous inspection.